

SHU UCU Hallam Privacy & Cookie Details

This is the privacy and cookie details for UCU SHU branch website.

The details were made available 13th November, 2022. Please ensure that you check the details regularly for updates. All details relating to privacy and cookie updates will be published on the branch website.

All data processing will follow GDPR. Some data may be held in manual and electronic systems.

For information about how UCU uses your data as a member please see national UCU privacy and cookie policy here

UCU Hallam branch website may use surveys, forms. Where survey/forms are used there will be details to explain the purpose and how any data may be used. In any event we will always seek to obtain your direct consent prior to collecting any personal information.

We may use personal data/ information to help us improve the site and the services of the branch that we offer.

There may be third party services used to improve the website such as Google Analytics (to monitor site usage), YouTube (to share videos), Twitter (for communication), Instagram (for communication), Facebook (for communication), and Curator (to display social media feeds). There may be pages that use these third-party services that may present cookies from these websites, so please refer to the policies of these providers for further details and how data is processed.

Contact details

If you would like to contact us about these details or about the website generally please contact UCU@shu.ac.uk

Last updated 19/11/22